

National Taipei University of Education

Since 1895

The National Taipei University of Education (NTUE), known as National Taipei Teachers College, was the first school established in Taiwan. The school was a teacher training college, and then it was upgraded to a comprehensive university since 2005. NTUE has produced a long line of distinguished alumni, including the current Education Minister, school principals, legendary artists and composers. Their outstanding successes further anchored NTUE's strong academic reputation.

Location

NTUE is centrally located in Taipei, the main capital of Taiwan and the biggest city. Taipei offers a wide variety of things to see and do, appealing to visitors and students around the world. NTUE is in the heart of Taipei's cultural and financial district, and near to the world renowned National Palace Museum, Taipei 101, Songshan Cultural and Creative Park, Chiang Kai-shek Memorial Hall, Ximending, Yangmingshan National Park and many other city attractions.

Internationalization

As internationalization is a trend in higher education globally in the 21st century, NTUE actively pursues a policy of international academic collaboration. At present, the University has solid relationships with more than 110 universities, and institutions around the world. Links with higher education institutions worldwide are formed and maintained through formal academic agreements, exchange programs, symposia and visits.

Scholarship

NTUE Scholarship aims to recruit outstanding students of foreign nationality to study at NTUE and promote academic internationalization.
